CHRISTMAS MESSAGE FROM MAWEJJE

The season of Advent prepares the Church and its people as they wait with anticipation for the arrival of Christmas and the second coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. As bishop Benjamin Pollard put it: "It [Advent] looks to Christmas and the first coming of Christ and to the last things of the final Advent in the end of the world and to the final triumph of our Lord. It tells us God has come, God comes, God will come."

We approach this Christmas season with the joy of knowing the ever-presence of God in spite of terror, tribulations and uncertainty. We come to Christmas with hope of God's blessings and God's unfailing love through Christ the King of peace. Since we are greatly blessed, and now that we know it, shall we therefore be a blessing through our mission and ministry to the needy (physically and spiritual-ly) in gratitude of God's bounty, and of Jesus Christ, the saviour of the world. Thank you for making it possible for St. George's faith community to be the "Church" in the world through your donations of time talent and money.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

The purpose of the trip is to expand our understanding of God's mission in the wider world. Sharing practices of discipleship and ministry, and growing in our experience of the diversity of the body of Christ. And strengthen our ability to intercede for and advocate for others in our world. St. George Wakefield has a link parish in Bukandula called "The Parish of St. James Bukandula". Maweje will be a part of this delegation travelling to Uganda.
